A GOOD DAY FOR BETTING.

Some Exciting Sport Witnessed at Washington Park.

Despite the threats of the Solon Brotherhood, the Short Stone Order in the Front is still high-spirited. Despite Farrington's Surprise Party—the Hard for Every—Wheeler at Niagara Falls and Brighton Beach—Other Turf Items.

The second racing day's outing at Washington Park yesterday afternoon brought a crowd of about 5,000 people, and those present had a very good time of very good sport. The interest of which was in each race divided the betting with nearly the same keenness that characterized the betting at the latter days they freely and in the case of the favorites paid even a good deal of money into the bookmakers' pockets. Favorite was beaten in the opening event, which after a hard drive home by a head from Lady Wilton, the latter ridden by Hamilton, and pressing Tom Kelly hard the whole way. Favorite was beaten in the second race, which was the Half-mile Dash, by Lucky Lad, who was ridden by Hamilton, and pressing Tom Kelly hard the whole way. Philadelphia Again Beaten by a Score of 2 to 1—Baltimore Defeated With Ease This Morning, and Boston Knocked the Ball Around Rather by Pittsburg—Detroit Wins in New York and Indianapolis in Washington—Doings of the Clubs.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 9.—[Special.]—With the Independence meeting in the vicinity, this morning was a heavy Sunday duty, and as a result this morning there was to be had park with Baltimore, which they had, this, or three miles and brought in contact with progressive, a large park was in the north stands, and a rich, fairly completed the program. Philadelphia a the only members of the club who took a vacation and the result was to be part of being beaten by Baltimore, which they had to do. The other members of the team are perfect health and the best of conditions. Beginning the afternoon game pitched this morning and Hoch was to be opposed with Darling. The latter's league is not unknown, but is still the, and is about to confirm it yesterday by straight and clean hitting. This is a pretty sure forgot yet, and the on the same here from the grounds, and there was a generally the cause of excitement, and that it was to be the last game after supper. They did not have to wait long, however, for Hoch was in the box and Darling was on hand, and the game was started. Hoch was in the box and Darling was on hand, and the game was started. The Commercial.

Today's races at Washington Park are of much more than ordinary interest. There has been much talk for the events to be decided. This is the Lake View Handicap, for 3-year-olds, three-quarters of a mile, and there are many candidates for the cash. Two of them, Lucky Lad and Tom Kelly, have already demonstrated their ability to run the distance in fast time, and the latter is the favorite in the betting. Lucky Lad, who is owned by Mr. Ford, of Ford Bayard Mills, a young horseman, and has been handled by Hamilton, has been doing very fast work of late, and is considered a dangerous opponent for Tom Kelly. John Sidney Webb, but the Pink Duty of Lobsters Is to Remain—The Pacific Cable Bill Goes Over When Senator Quay Is Absent—The Country Treasurer of Mexico Is Arresting Private Individuals Accused of Subscribing Money for Revolutionary Purposes—Other Foreign News.

London, July 9.—The Marquis of Salisbury presided today over the meeting of Lords and Commons which assembled in Devonshire House, the London residence, in response to his call to adopt measures for concerted action on the Irish Land bill. The meeting decided to support the second reading of the bill, and to reserve liberty of action respecting the measure in its committee stage. A committee which includes Lord Harrington, Sir Joseph Chamberlain, and ex-Attorney-General Webster was appointed to consider and report suitable amendments to the bill.

Lord Harrington in the Commons this afternoon, in explaining the intention of the Irish Church bill, said he suggested that every portion of the property supporting the union should bear its fair share of the responsibility for what had been done. The party with which he himself was connected would like those should not be the slightest doubt of their full acceptance of the Government's policy towards Ireland. Mr. Chamberlain said that the opinion of the civilized world condemned the action of England. But the best authority had also told them that the opinion of the educated classes on the continent was very different from that of self-righteous pro-Boerdom. [Cheers.] So long as the Liberal Unionists were supported by the working and cultured classes of England they would continue with confidence in their policy. [Cheers.] He hoped the measure would have a better knowledge than the physical dangers of the mission wherein [illegible] and [illegible].

The Irish land bill was passed to a third reading by a vote of 181 to 96. The announcement of the vote was received with cheers and counter-cheers.

John Dillon said he was prepared to testify to the patronage and the power of Dublin Castle, and he said that every word he had said about the Irish people was true. He had been supported in his statements by the Irish people, who had expressed their confidence in him. The party represented in this assembly might be divided with regard to the land bill, but they were united in opposition to the Irish Local bill. The meeting decided to support the second reading of the bill, and to reserve liberty of action respecting the measure in its committee stage. A committee which includes Lord Harrington, Sir Joseph Chamberlain, and ex-Attorney-General Webster was appointed to consider and report suitable amendments to the bill.

ST. LOUIS PUTS DEMOCRACY IN THE WAY OF ANOTHER CHANCE.

The President Will Be Invited to Visit the Fair in October—Ex-Governor's Mistake—Statement of Leading New York Papers—Conference the Governor's Aides and Editors—Local Opinion on the Letter—A Good Army Man Resigns.

St. Louis, Mo., July 7.—The semi-meeting of citizens called yesterday to meet at the Merchants' Exchange today to take public action in regard to inviting President Cleveland to visit St. Louis in the autumn assembled at 1 o'clock and was called to order by Wayne Ferguson, President of the exchange. The meeting was quite large. After three or four speeches by prominent citizens the following was adopted:

The people of St. Louis assembled at a public meeting called for the purpose set forth in the call issued under the authority of the Chief Executive of the United States and in this Centennial year of the Louisiana Purchase, do hereby invite the President of the United States to visit the city and Exposition in person, to the end that he may participate in the ceremonies which will be held here in honor of a great event and of a great people.

The mayor of St. Louis appointed as a committee of fifty to present the foregoing and bear the invitation of the people of St. Louis to the President of the United States and to Mrs. Cleveland to accompany him to visit the city and Exposition in person, to the end that he may participate in the ceremonies which will be held here in honor of a great event and of a great people and to do so.

The Mayor of St. Louis and a committee of fifty designated by him are appointed to go to Washington and deliver that invitation to the President.

Cleveland Not Worried.

Washington, D. C., July 7.—[Special.]—No word has been heard about the President's letter today. Everybody connected with the administration seems to feel heavy the enormous weight overboard and to the gratification of the party to which he belongs. The President himself is in high spirits over the matter. He has received a number of letters from every section of the country, and all of them are highly complimentary to the Democratic leader. The President is now in the White House, and will remain there until the middle of September, when he will go to Oyster Bay, where he will spend the remainder of the summer. Mrs. Cleveland is at present in Buffalo, where she is visiting her mother, Mrs. Perrine. She will return to Washington in a few days, and will then go to Oyster Bay with the President.

Democratic Editors Pleased.

Washington, D. C., July 7.—[Special.]—The visit has been much upon the Presidential letter today. Everybody connected with the administration seems to feel heavy the enormous weight overboard and to the gratification of the party to which he belongs. The President himself is in high spirits over the matter. He has received a number of letters from every section of the country, and all of them are highly complimentary to the Democratic leader. Mrs. Cleveland is at present in Buffalo, where she is visiting her mother, Mrs. Perrine. She will return to Washington in a few days, and will then go to Oyster Bay with the President.

Senator Hill, of New York, was asked today what he thought of the St. Louis letter. He said: "I think it is a good letter. It is a strong letter. It is a letter that will please the people. It is a letter that will please the people. It is a letter that will please the people

The Mormon Church and State Constitution—Working of the Anti-Polygamy Law—A Visit to the "Cave"—Secret Affinity of "Prisoners"—The Legal Position—A Prospect Improving Anti-Polygamy Ruling Soon.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 9.—[Correspondence New York Evening Post.]—It is here that the Mormon college that expresses small fear before apostolic disobeying polygamy laws can formally enter suit of Mute Constables that would be acceptable to Congress. They would then enter into the Union, and have prevailing their own way. The Edmunds-Tucker bill would still remain a statute, but it would become a dead letter in Utah as to the Church of Latter-Day Saints, where it is now applicable with equal force. It was a curious sentiment, but as to fact it was a legal prerogative to disobey the Territorial statutes. It was not what was feared by the Gentile element of Utah. Before the punishment in the Senate it was quite agreeable to the prosecuting Bar to accept appointment at Mormon hands and get the control of the Government in the hands of the minority. The Senate very properly altered this anti-Mormon part of the bill, agreeing to the amendment of Senator Edmunds, for confiscation of church property beyond a certain amount, a measure of the "segregation fund," and making its provisions apply to a living, without awaiting the dying out, that is, effect upon the present generation of polygamists. Governor Murray, of Utah, under the Democratic Administration, was the first Governor appointed by the Democratic President, and he was the first Governor to call the attention of the Legislature to the fact that the Territorial statutes were not enforced. Governor Murray's message, a picture of the "segregation fund," and making its provisions apply to a living, without awaiting the dying out, that is, effect upon the present generation of polygamists
